

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND

R. Alexander Acosta, Secretary of Labor,
United States Department of Labor,

Petitioner,

v.

NORTH PROVIDENCE PRIMARY CARE
ASSOCIATES INC., NORTH PROVIDENCE
URGENT CARE, INC., CENTER OF NEW ENGLAND PRIMARY CARE, INC.,
CENTER OF NEW ENGLAND URGENT
CARE, INC. AND ANTHONY FARINA, JR.

Respondents.

Civil Action No. 1:17-mc-0019-M-PAS

Unopposed Motion to Withdraw Petition for Enforcement of Administrative Subpoena

Now comes the Secretary of Labor, Petitioner, and pursuant to LR Cv 7, moves this court to withdraw his Petition for Enforcement of Administrative Subpoena in the above captioned matter. The Respondents have no opposition to this motion.

The Secretary filed a Petition for Enforcement of Administrative Subpoena on May 10, 2017 with this court. On August 17, 2017, Attorney Lepizerra, counsel for Respondents, submitted to the Providence Wage and Hour Office an attestation and documentation that no further documents exist that are responsive to the administrative subpoena served on the Respondents in this case. (See Exhibit 1 to this Unopposed Motion).

Therefore, it appears that the Respondents are currently in compliance with the Petitioner's Administrative Subpoena, which was the subject of the May 10, 2017 petition in this case, and with the assent of the Respondents, the Petitioner moves for the withdrawal of his Petition in the above captioned case.

Respectfully Submitted:

Post Office Address:

U.S. Department of Labor
Office of the Solicitor
JFK Federal Building
Room E-375
Boston, MA 02203
TEL: (617) 565-2500
FAX: (617) 565-2142

Date: August 29, 2017

Nicolas C. Geale
Acting Solicitor of Labor

Michael D. Felsen
Regional Solicitor

/s/Susan G. Salzberg
Susan G. Salzberg
Senior Trial Attorney
salzberg.susan@dol.gov
MA BBO No. 556437

Attorneys for Petitioner